PLEA FOR LOWER PRIMARY EXPENSE VOICED BY BROWN

Secretary Of State Wants
Law Modified, He Tells Westville Crowd.

SAYS BETTER TYPE OF ROADS NEEDED

Contests And Exhibits Of Farm Produce Held;
Judge Farr Speaks.

Ohio's primaries cost too much, and the 1923 legislature will be asked to cut that cost by authorizing the elimination of primary elections where there are no contests, Thad H. Brown of Columbus, secretary of state, told residents of seven townships, gathered together at Westville lake Saturday for their annual harvest home picnic.

"Last August it cost every voter in Cincinnati $3.69 to hold a primary election, although there was not one contest," Mr. Brown declared. One Cleveland suburb paid $10 to $11 for every vote cast. This system must be changed in order to conserve the taxpayers' money.

"As secretary of state, I am compelled to order elections regardless of whether there are or are not contested places. The law explicitly says 'shall.' I have no alternative. But when the next legislature meets in 1925, I intend to put forward a plan to eliminate these unnecessary primaries and save the citizens of many Ohio towns money which they badly need for other work."

Voices Needs Of Roads

In his address, the feature of the picnic event, Brown strove to picture the work which each state department does, including his own, and to describe how the governor's so-called "cabinet" functions. A particularly telling portion of his speech dealt with the mounting number of automobiles in Ohio and the need for better and more hard-surfaced roads as heavy traffic arteries.

Nine hundred and sixty thousand auto licenses have been issued from the secretary of state's office this year, Brown declared. It is predicted by the end of 1923 the number will be more than 1,000,000. Ohio stands third among the states for the number of automobiles, New York being first and California second, the speaker said. There are 12,000,000 automobiles in the world today, of which Ohio, he added, has one-tenth—more than Great Britain and all her possessions.

This flow of licenses in Ohio has brought forth a fund of $9,000,000, Brown explained. Under the law, 50 per cent goes to the state. The remaining 50 per cent goes either to the municipality where it originates, or to the county commissioners when it originates outside an incorporated village or city. The state's share is devoted to maintenance and repair work on highways.

Insisting that the increasing number of automobiles in Ohio is developing a serious problem in transportation, the secretary of state declared that more hard roads are needed. He (Continued on fifth page.)

Appeals Verdict In Justice Court Here

As the result of an automobile accident on the Salem-Lisbon rd. in August, Harry A. Briedenstein sued George A. Koyle in the court of Justice H. E. Gieckler for the sum of $25.51.

The plaintiff alleged that as he was turning into the driveway at his home the defendant disregarded his signal for a turn and ran into him, damaging his car. Koyle came back with a denial of the allegation that he and disregarded the signal and with a counter claim of $40.60 for damages to his car. After hearing the evidence the justice found for the plaintiff in the sum of $29.41.

The defendant has appealed the case to common pleas court.

County Odd Fellows Plan Meeting Series

Odd Fellows representing the different Columbiana county lodges will meet Monday night in the Lisbon Odd Fellows hall to arrange the social county meetings for next winter. Lodges at Columbiana, Salineville, Lisbon, East Palestine, Salem, Leetonia, Wellsville and East Liverpool will have representatives at the meeting.

It is thought that the first of the series of social meetings will be held in Salineville Sept. 29. The condition of the roads leading into that town during the winter months makes an early meeting advisable.

Youngstown—A Youngstown motorist thought he would "pick up" a companion and take an auto ride. He selected Miss Lottie Mitchell and was consequently arrested as she is a police woman.

EXHIBITS PLACED AT FAIR GROUNDS

Crowds Gather Sunday As Many Of
The Attractions Arrive; Fair
Will Open Tuesday.

Lisbon, Sept. 10.—Sunday afternoon crowds thronged the Columbiana county fair grounds to see the exhibits already on display there. Many entries of cattle, hogs, sheep and poultry have arrived and other exhibits are arriving hourly with their stock.

Many of the concessions have been installed, among which are two large concessions and another ride concession called the whip. The new exhibition building and the grandstand have been completed and are now ready to accommodate the large crowds which fair officials expect on each of the three days, Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

Work on the new judges' stand began this morning and will be rushed to completion in time for the fair opening tomorrow.

In addition to the regular purses for the harness races, cups for the winners of the races have been donated by the Lisbon Driving club.

TRACKS TORN UP BY CITY EMPLOYEES

Company Officials Look On,
Powerless To Prevent Action In Niles.

Niles, Sept. 10.—While officials of the company looked on, powerless to prevent action, workmen employed by the city of Niles tore up the main track of the Pennsylvania-Ohio Electric company here at 1 o'clock this morning.

The act severed the main line between Youngstown, Girard and Warren and street car transportation between Youngstown and Warren was interrupted for the first time in 26 years.

Some weeks ago the city council voted to pave Robbins ave., the main artery into the city. The tracks of the Pennsylvania-Ohio company are laid in this street. According to the franchise the trolley company must bear the cost of paving between the rails on any street where the company maintains tracks. The company protested its inability to pay the assessed amount of approximately $75,000 unless a fare increase was granted. This the city refused.

Cleveland, Sept. 10.—With three additional deaths Sunday, Cuyahoga county's death toll due to traffic accidents since Jan. 1, 1923, stood today at 108.

The Sunday victims were all children. Eleanor Rogers, 9, was killed when she was pinned beneath an auto in which she was riding with her father and two brothers, Henry Nakel, 4, and Thomas Cloan, 4, died as a result of being struck by machines while playing in the streets.

FARRELL INJURED SERIOUSLY MONDAY WHEN AUTO SKIDS

Brought To Hospital After Accident While On His Way To Work.

Harvey Farrell, 40, is in the Central Clinic hospital with a fractured shoulder blade, several fractured ribs, extensive bruises, lacerations of the face and body and possible internal injuries as the result of an automobile accident on the Scrabble road at 6:30 a. m. Monday.

Farrell was driving to work in Salem from his home near Scrabble. As he neared the home of Marion Bowers on the Scrabble road near the New-garden road his car skidded on the slippery road and plunged into the ditch, upsetting and pinning the man under it.

Persons in the Bower home heard the crash and rushed to the scene. Farrell, almost unconscious, was pinned beneath the steering wheel which was broken by the impact.

The ambulance was called and the injured man was taken to the hospital where it was at first thought he would die soon. As he regained consciousness it was found that his injuries were not so serious but he will not be able to leave the hospital for some time.

Three cars were slightly wrecked in minor accidents on roads leading into Salem over the week end but no one was reported injured.

Near Boyd's pavilion north of Damascus Sunday morning five Canton people were burned and shaken up when the automobile in which they were riding turned over in the ditch and caught fire, imprisoning the occupants beneath.

Passing motorists excited them from the wreck and helped extinguish the blaze. A Damascus physician dressed their wounds. It is understood that one of the two women was seriously burned.

FEVER EPIDEMIC ADDS TO HORRORS OF JAP DISASTER

Ambassador Woods Reports
Fever Has Broken Out
In Tokio.

SUFFERINGS ARE BEING RELIEVED

Parks In Cities Resemble Huge Military Mobilization Quarters.

Washington, Sept. 10.—To add to the horror of the devastation in the Japanese earthquake area, an epidemic of fever has broken out in Tokio, according to a dispatch to the state department today from Ambassador Woods.

The dispatch said: "An epidemic of fever has already broken out in Tokio, in accordance with your instructions I have appointed a Red Cross relief committee in Tokio."

Kobe, Sept. 10.—Extraordinary efforts of American and other foreign and native relief expeditions in Yokohama and Tokio, destroyed Japanese cities, have brought alleviation of the distress of the homeless and the suffering of native and foreign residents.

Parks in the capital and port city resemble huge military mobilization quarters. Barracks have been constructed to provide temporary shelter for the millions of homeless persons.

Reports of the scourge of pestilence an aftermath of the havoc wrought to the water systems and the decomposition of corpses are unconfirmed, but authorities here declare today that the menace of cholera and dysentery is inevitable because of the pollution of the only available drinking water and damaged foodstuffs.

Abandon Hope For Safety

Hope for the safety of Argentine Minister Señor Del Corral and his beautiful daughter, Maria Louisa, was abandoned here today by the Argentine consul. Minister Del Corral and his daughter, who was one of the most popular society favorites in the foreign colony, are believed to have been crushed in the crumbling of the Argentine embassy in Tokio when the first quake struck that city.

U. S. Consul General-at-Large Johnson, accompanied by Vice Consul Wright, arrived in Yokohama to attempt to establish headquarters there. Consul General Cunningham of the Philippines, who is aiding in the supervision of relief work, remained in Kobe to assist Eary B. Dickover, American consul here.

In Yokohama discrepancies are noted in the report of casualties. The exact total of dead will perhaps never be known. The lowest estimate reaching here give the number of dead at 30,000, while the greatest was 100,000.

$30,000 IS SOUGHT BY CRASH VICTIMS

Columbiana Man And Wife,
Injured In Accident,
Sue Auto Owner.

Two damage suits aggregating $30,000 were filed in common pleas court Monday by Walter Thomas and Vesta Thomas, husband and wife, of Columbiana, against Perry H. Moore, of Youngstown, as the result of an automobile accident which occurred near North Lima on May 30, 1923.

In both cases the allegations are the same, the plaintiff stating that they were driving along the road when the defendant's car, operated at a speed of more than 35 miles an hour, crashed into their car, demolishing it and injuring them both in such a way that their health is affected and that they will never recover from the effects of their injuries.

They allege carelessness and recklessness on the part of the defendant and say that the accident never would have happened had he used proper care and precaution in operating his automobile.

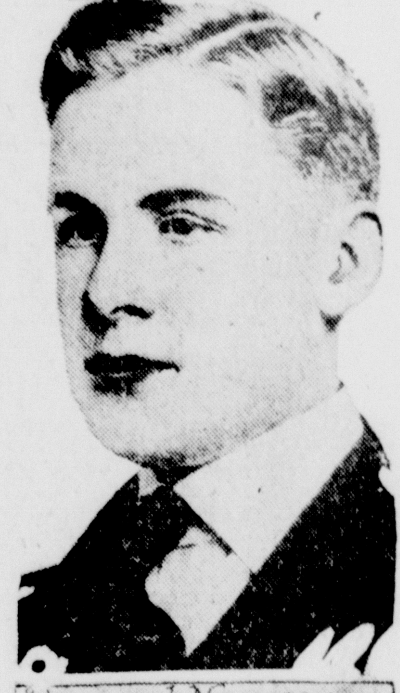

SWALLOWS LYSOL, ENDING HER LIFE

Ill health is reported to have caused Mrs. Alma Haag, 41, of Columbiana, to drink lysol about 10 a. m. Sunday at her home, which resulted in her death about three hours later. She had been in failing health for three years.

It is alleged that Mrs. Haag sent her son, Alvin Myers, who is a young man, to a store to get lysol to put in the sink, and that after he had left the house she drank some of the drug.

Mrs. Haag lived in an upstairs apartment and her neighbor across the hall saw her sitting in the bath-

Defied Mustapha Kemal At Point Of Pistol.

Raymond Moreman, a young Pomona (Cal.) Near East relief worker, standing under an American flag, drew a revolver and dared Mustapha Kemal Pasha, the Turkish Nationalist leader, to enter the former palace of the Greek Premier, Venizelos, at Boudja, a suburb of Smyrna, where 400 Greek orphans had been housed by the American relief workers. He got away with his bluff.

CITY'S JAPANESE RELIEF FUND IS NEAR $2000 GOAL

Donations At Churches On Sunday Swell Total;
Goal In Sight.

Salem's relief fund for suffering Japanese quake victims is nearing the goal of $2,000.

While all reports were not completed by the committee at noon Monday, the volunteer workers estimate that Monday's total was between $1,500 and $1,700.

Contributions left at the churches, Sunday swelled the fund, but complete reports were not available Monday. The Presbyterian church reported $149; Friends $26; Christian $75; Methodist $80.

These reports, and those to come from other churches, indicate that the appeal to the general public has been answered.

Efforts are being made by the relief fund committee to close the campaign by Tuesday night, when it is hoped that the quota will be exceeded. Detailed reports will be given at that time.

Young Man Arrested On Shooting Charge

Officers Kirkbridge and Bryn arrested three young men early Sunday morning for shooting in the city limits. Ed Drotlef, residing on the Georgetown rd., was jailed on the Tuesday night before Acting Mayor E. L. Flick. The other two men were released when it was found that it was Drotlef who did the shooting.

The three men were hunting skunks it is said, and Drotlef possessed a small revolver to shoot the said animal. As the party came to Roosevelt ave. Drotlef shot at something and neighbors thinking that robbers were in the vicinity and called the police.

Chief Will Corral Dogs Running Loose

Chief of Police T. W. Thompson stated Monday that all owners of dogs who allow their animals to run loose in the city limits and also unmuzzled will be liable to a fine of $10 for the offense according to the city ordinance.

Numerous complaints have reached the chief at various times recently. The dogs will be disposed of and the owners will be fined, the chief said.

THRILLING STORIES RIVALING FICTION TOLD BY SAILORS

Refugees Of The Crash Of
7 Destroyers Reach
Los Angeles.

ALL STAY ABOARD REMAINING CALM

Members Of Crew Sing And Whistle As Ships Are Torn To Pieces.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 10.—Thrilling eye-witness stories that rival the most weird fiction were unveiled here today as the 517 salvaged souls, refugees of the crash of seven United States warships on the rocks near Point Arguello, Santa Barbara county, passed through Los Angeles on a special train enroute to San Diego, where the squadron was headed when the wreck occurred Saturday night.

The men and officers, half clothed and crammed into nine passenger coaches many of them strewn in the aisles of the coaches, craved but two things—something to eat and some sleep.

Every man showed signs of hardships and many of them were bandaged.

One of the most tragic stories told by the sailor survivors was that of "Squad" Pierson, fireman, first class, of the U. S. S. Delphy, who lost the sight in both eyes when cut by his glasses which were broken as he was washed overboard. Pierson was rescued, but upon being brought on deck, lost his mind and was again lost when the ship was broken in two.

All members of the crew gave unstinted praise to Commander W. L. Calhoun, in command of the U. S. S. Young, which tipped over within a minute and a half after she had crashed on the rocks.

All Remained Calm

Commander Calhoun, the men said, ordered every man to remain calm and stay aboard, which they obeyed with the slightest dissent, as an illustration of the spirit of the men while facing apparent death in a fog that was as dense as was ever experienced on the southern California coast.

Members of the crew of the destroyer Young started whistling and singing their favorite songs.

Many of the men were modest and refused to discuss their actions, but were anxious to relate the heroism of others.

One of these thrilling stories was told of Chief Boatsman's Mate Peerson, who swam to the Young from the destroyer Chauncey. Peerson, his face still begrimed with grease and his clothes wet, modestly denied he "did a thing" but was anxious to praise Commander Calhoun whom he and the other men declared was the outstanding hero of the disaster because of the masterful manner in which he handled his crew.

SCORES INJURED AS U. S. WARSHIPS PILE UP ON ROCKS

Ships In Single File Crash
In An Impenetrable
Blanket Of Fog.

RESCUE SURVIVORS FROM "GRAVEYARD"

Reverberation Of Terrible
Impact Against Rocks
Saves Others.

San Francisco, Sept. 10.—Twenty-two dead, scores injured and seven destroyers wrecked today marks the greatest loss in a single disaster to the U. S. navy in peace times.

In an almost impenetrable blanket of fog the destroyers Delphy, Young, S. P. Lee, Nicholas, Fuller, Chauncey and Woodbury, in single line formation, piled up on the treacherous rocks off Point Arguello, two miles from the Point Arguello light-house in Santa Barbara county.

All seven destroyers were a contingent of the eleventh squadron. Ten bodies have been recovered, two of which have been identified as R. A. Conroy, fireman, first class, of the Delphy and "Squad" Pierson, fireman first class, also of the Delphy.

Thirteen seriously injured are in hospitals in Santa Barbara. A special train carrying over 500 survivors, officers and enlisted men, are enroute to San Diego by special train.

The task of rescuing survivors from rocks and cliffs in the vicinity of the "grave yard of ships" was completed last night after heroic work on the part of the rescuers, many of them being officers and enlisted men of the ill-fated destroyers who had made their way to shore by means of a raft.

Broken In Two

It was officially announced at Twelfth Naval district headquarters that several of the destroyers cannot be salvaged. The Delphy, which was leading the squadron, is broken in two, it was announced. The Fuller, has a list of 20 degrees to starboard and is in danger of being pounded to pieces, as is also the Nicholas and S. P. Lee. The Woodbury has a list of 40 degrees while the Young is aground on her beam ends and three-quarters submerged. The Chauncey is wedged between rocks above water and upright.

Scores of navy and other craft are standing by the destroyers in an effort to recover other possible victims. The salvage work is under the supervision of Admiral H. E. W. Kittell, who arrived on the scene of the disaster aboard the Tender Melville.

The reverberation of the terrible impact against the rocks of the ill-fated destroyers, which was audible to remainder of the vessels of squadron 11, saved them from a similar fate. The division was enroute from San Francisco to San Diego when the accident occurred. The destroyers were said to have been traveling at a speed of 20 knots an hour.

The chart of one of the wrecked vessels was produced showing that, according to the reckoning of the navigation officers, all vessels were presumably about eight miles off shore. However, unusually strong currents, probably caused by tidal disturbances on the Japanese coast, are believed by some to have taken the destroyers from their course.

The First Day Of School

WHAT an interesting day is the first day of school! The high school girls troop past talking and laughing, looking very fresh and pretty in their new school clothes. A girl of this age on the first day of school is a curious combination of seriousness and giggling, a very charming combination. It is a pretty good combination for a girl to go through life with. Life is a serious thing but it certainly has its humorous aspects, aspects which wise men and women always keep well to the fore, not so prominent as to obscure the other aspects but prominent enough to relieve their tedious and somberness. Those girlish giggles represent the spirit of youth, and if a woman or a man keeps them always, life is an interesting and inspiring experience right through.

And here comes the high school boys with their self-consciousness and everything. They too are attractive in their lanky, awkward way, as they follow the girls along with frequent flashes of high school humor to attract their attention and then indulge in an embarrassed scuffle among themselves. When a high school boy feels the way a high school girl feels when she giggles, he scuffles with a friend. Scuffling also is the natural expression of the spirit of youth.

The spirit of youth keeps one interested in wholesome things, nature, sport, honest work, fair fighting, ambition to know something and be somebody. It is a great asset and a great safeguard to a man, however old. In fact, when it is gone entirely, one might as well be dead.

We saw a little boy setting forth to school for the first time today, alone doubtless with the most careful and explicit instructions as to street crossings and general behavior and doubtless with loving eyes wiped dry once and again perhaps, following them just as far as they could see. Just think! Six short years ago, and it doesn't seem even that long, he was a little bit of a helpless baby and now he is going to school all by himself. It doesn't seem possible, but there he goes. He is a little timid, a little frightened, his hand would feel better in his mother's just now, but he is going to school all by himself. He is a man now and he shows it in his brave and self-reliant bearing as he marches forth to face his great world.

God bless the little chap! He and that little sister of his to whom he said goodbye a minute ago, for she will not go to school until next year, being so very young—they are the most worthwhile things in life. Just suppose the plan of creation were different and people appeared here for the first time, out of the dust or something, full-grown! Who'd care much about being around then!

Boiling They Down

ONE of Akron's jurists says there are not as many laws on the statute books as popularly supposed. Judging from the way laws and regulations had been heaved at them from every possible direction, it had come to be the understanding of the people that the books contained a few million laws, at least, for their government.

It is the argument of this jurist that no law is a law until it is enforced. Merely spreading a few thousand words on the records of congress and the state legislatures does not make an intended enactment a law. It becomes such, he says, only when it is "bodily announced and successfully maintained." By this token we may be not so badly off as it seems. Every new session of the national and state legislatures boldly announces a multitude of new laws, but very few of them seem to be successfully maintained.

If the Akron judge is right it may be questioned whether this nation has a law against murder, for many a bandit, gunman and sheltered and unsheltered lady have upon occasion killed at will and gone quit of any punishment from the state. Under the circumstances society needs a new godflying commission to get rid of laws that fall for want of general proclamation, popular respect and enforcement. Those that survive the sorting process would not take much room on the shelves of the libraries. But if this plan of elimination would take all the bulk and volume out of man-made laws, what would happen to the God-given Ten Commandments if this jurist's acid test of acceptance and maintenance were applied to them?

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

BOILS

These are of such frequent occurrence, found in almost every household at one time or another that a point or two regarding them might be in order.

A boil is simply an inflammation of the skin which occurs about the gland of a hair root.

You know what it looks like, just a hard conical red lump which may pass away in three or four days, or may turn yellow at the top, break down, and pour out pus about seven or eight days after the lump first appears.

And the cause? In former years it was thought that a boil was due to impure blood in the system which was trying to escape from the body in this manner.

It is now felt that as so many boils occur where there is friction or rubbing, as at the back of the neck, that an irritation of the hair is the first cause, and then infection follows from the hands. Thus a crop of boils may ensue about the neck.

When boils occur in crops in different parts of the body it is felt that that particular body has a poor resistance or is in a low state of health.

The first thing to remember is that the skin in the vicinity of the boil should be kept clean, with a good soap and hot water. The boil itself should be bathed with hot boracic solution—a teaspoonful to the pint of water, and then covered with gauze to prevent any friction.

No collar should be worn if the boil is on the neck. There has been much controversy over the lancing or the making of two cuts to form a cross in the boil. Many think that the boil should be allowed to open itself and discharge its contents.

Many feel that an incision too early causes a delay in the formation of the boil.

It is the custom now to allow the boil to go on to pus formation and then if the opening appears too small and there is much pain, the natural opening is enlarged by an incision.

An incision even before pus formation often relieves the tension and pain. In every case the intestine is cleansed thoroughly by calomel and epsom salts.

THE BRIGHT SPOT IN YOUNGSTOWN

Where Cleanliness Is One of the Ten Commandments

COME ONE—COME ALL!

NOW, you have not only the opportunity of buying your favorite variety of Ward's Bread, made fresh every sunrise right here in your own community, but you have the opportunity of seeing how the bread is made from start to finish, under the most cleanly and modern processes; where science and exact formulas have taken the place of the old thumb rule of baking.

For two weeks on every week day afternoon except Saturdays, from three-thirty to six P. M., we will keep open house at our new wonder plant and the public is invited to come and see the making of bread the Ward Way—the Clean Way.

Come and see this wonderful new bakery with its mammoth, gas-fired, traveling ovens which bake thousands upon thousands of loaves every hour—the giant dough mixing machines, each of which mix dough for 1,600 loaves at one time—see the shaping and forming of the dough—and see how the loaves are automatically wrapped in sanitary, dust-proof, waxed paper by nimble steel fingers—all untouched by human hands. A most interesting and educational exhibition of modern bread making.

OPEN HOUSE TO ALL

Yes, Open House is the pass-word to the new Ward wonder bakery and you will be as welcome as the flowers in May. Bring your friends. Organize a party, come in and "go through." You will enjoy your visit and when you see the spic and span, snow-white cleanliness of this marvel bakery—when you see the high grade flour, milk, sugar, yeast—all of the other ingredients that go into the making of Ward's Bread, you will be convinced that it is all we have advertised it to be—the highest—the Ward standard of quality, purity and cleanliness.

Ward's Bread and Cake will be delivered fresh every sunrise to all dealers in Youngstown and neighboring towns by our splendid new fleet of gas and electric motor vehicles. Start buying and using them today and you will never again be satisfied with any other. In freshness, flavor, purity, cleanliness and food-value they are the standard bakery products of today. If, perchance, your neighborhood grocer or dealer cannot at once supply your needs, drop us a card by mail, or phone our bakery—Telephone Main 1821 Youngstown, and we will see that you are promptly supplied.

WARD'S CAKES

Ward's Cakes are the favorite desserts of a million American homes—the cakes that have led thousands of women to give up home cake-baking. For here, in fact, at least are cakes that even mother is willing to admit are as good or better than she can bake herself and possibly—yes, quite likely—a little bit cheaper, all things considered.

With many varieties of package cakes and pound cakes and delicious layer cakes from which to choose why should anyone bother or worry about making cakes at home? Ward's Cakes are made from the same fine ingredients you use in your own kitchen, and are made by experts whose results are perfect—day after day.

Place Your Order With Your Neighborhood Dealer Today for Ward's Bread and Cake. They Will Give You a New Idea of Quality in Baked Goods

Editor of Salem News:
May I ask representation in your columns as a man, proud of his old home town, and shouting for joy that Salem is the first to distinguish herself as the defender of our beloved president, Warren G. Harding from the dastardly attack of Prof. Irving Fisher of Yale college.

Salem takes her place as she has always done, since the days of her courageous position in the Anti-Slavery movement, the early temperance movement, the women's rights campaign and now in the movement to eliminate the traducer of one of the noblest men that have held the highest honor in the gift of the American people.

The man capable of such an outrageous attack and sneaking out, should not be allowed to assist the great Yale college in the education of Americans.

Buick Four-wheel Brakes

Buick four-wheel brakes meet the demands of present day traffic conditions by having power in reserve to insure a rapid, safe and reliable "stop".

Actual braking effectiveness is practically doubled by Buick four-wheel brakes. This is accomplished by slowing down the two front wheels. Each brake band has a three-quarter wrap or grip on its brake drum, rather than the half-way wrap in common practice.

The Buick four-wheel brakes are an integral part of the Buick front axle design. Their arrangement and operation are simple. The front brakes are coupled in relation to the rear so that when the brake pedal is operated more pressure is put on the rear brakes than on the front.

Buick four-wheel brakes for all models are one of many definite advances in motor car operation and maintenance that the Buicks have contributed to automobile transportation.

PLEA FOR LOWER

bluntly opposed building of gravel roads of the construction desired by Gov. Donahay.

Brown asserted that "it is futile and foolish to attempt to get along with the roads we now have—just as futile and foolish as it would be to single the Pennsylvania railroad to use single line where double tracking was needed."

Judge Farr Speaks

The address of the secretary of state, who came from Cleveland and was met at Salem by Prosecuting Attorney J. C. Hanley of East Liverpool was generously applauded by the crowd of 1,000 which gathered about the bandstand beneath the trees.

Brown was followed by Judge L. T. Farr of the circuit court of appeals, who urged farmers present not to be impeded in seeking a remedy for their apparent injustices of today.

"We hear much," Judge Farr said during his address, "of the belief that prosperity or adversity are attributable to the fact that this or that party is in power. But actually it makes little or no difference. There are economic conditions which transcend all others. There is something inherently wrong when wheat sells for less than it costs, unquestionably, but I am of the opinion that much could be gained by more general co-operative marketing."

The speaker closed with a plea to the farmer to "be patient, and seek the true cause of your ills."

At the picnic were represented residents from Butler, Knox, West, Smith, Goshen, Lexington and Washington townships. Many fine exhibits of vegetables, grain and fruits were entered for prizes. Mrs. T. A. Ball was awarded a prize for the prettiest baby, while the prize for the fattest baby was given to Mrs. Ida Bohli. A good sports program, consisting of races for girls, boys and men, was carried out. A ball game between Hanover and North Georgetown took place in the afternoon.

Bert Cobbs, president of the picnic association, presided at the meeting. At the election he was re-elected and so were Ernest Wathrick, treasurer, and Elmer E. Walker, secretary. The only change was in the vice presidency, occupied by John Groves, who resigned. The place was filled by Vernon Stanley.

The crowd this year was said to be much smaller than at last year's picnic, which was ascribed to the fact that it was held one week later.

Music was provided by the Home-north orchestra. Miss Eunice Jackson of Homeworth sang several solos.

Miss Ruth Bossert, of Youngstown spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Bossert.

Rev. and Mrs. Walter Brandt and daughter, Margaret, of Cleveland, are visiting with Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Brandt.

SMALL BEGINNINGS SHOW BIG RESULTS

Many great enterprises begin in small way. Many a successful advertiser has begun by using classified advertisements in a modest way. These brought good returns, which enabled the business to be developed, and eventually large advertisements were profitably used. Intelligent use of the little ads in The Salem News either by advertiser or reader will prove.

Japan's New Premier Is Reported Missing.

A cablegram from Manila reports that semi-official circles in Japan declare Admiral Gombel Yamamoto, newly appointed premier of Japan, is missing in the earthquake and fire in Tokyo. He had previously been reported as having fled to Osaka, where the new capital of Japan has been established. He was in conference with his cabinet in the Naval club in Tokyo, when the earthquake came and was reported to have been slightly injured. Another unconfirmed report at that time declared he had been assassinated, but this was denied.

SEEKING FACTS ABOUT MOON

Photographic Attempts to Determine the Composition of Strange Area on It.

Curious results are obtained when certain objects are photographed under different lights. For example, plates of a landscape obtained by infra-red light give the sky as jet black and trees and grass as white as snow. Ultra-violet photographs or pictures obtained through a quartz lens heavily silvered on one side show white garden flowers as quite black.

If the moon's whiteness were due to the presence of zinc oxide, then the localities in which this substance was present when photographed by ultra-violet rays would not appear white, but black. This plan has been tried in the case of lunar photographs, and in the neighborhood of the crater Aristarchus it is clearly shown that there is a considerable area whereof the surface material differs from that in its proximity.

In ordinary light this shows no variation from the rest of the surface, but repeated photographs taken with the quartz lens and silver lens prove that some unsuspected substance exists on that spot. The difficulty is to determine its nature. The only way at present, it seems, consists in photographing different rocks until one is found that presents the same characteristics as those of this district of the moon. There have been unavailing trials of lavas, volcanic debris and minerals of many kinds.—Washington Star.

LISBON SEARCHES FOR H. S. TEACHERS

The matter of hiring teachers for the Lisbon High school this year has been a bit of a miss proposition. Several times the board of education has thought that they had completed the faculty only to be made aware in a day or two that they would have to secure one or two more to take the places of those who had resigned after accepting a position. The scarcity of teachers and the increased wages offered in surrounding towns have been the reason that many of the teachers reconsidered their promise to the board. For this reason the board has made no announcement as yet regarding the personnel of the teachers in the High school faculty and will not be able to do so possibly until next week.

Then Quaker Puffed Rice in the morning
The finest grain foods known

Quaker Puffed Wheat is whole wheat puffed to airy globules, 8 times normal size. Each airy, flaky, flavory grain becomes a food confection.

It is made by Professor Anderson's process. Over 125 million steam explosions are caused in every kernel. Thus the food cells are broken for easy digestion. The elements are fitted to feed.

Every night feed children minerals, vitamins, bran

Quaker Puffed Wheat in milk is the greatest dish mothers ever served. It means whole wheat and whole milk in their most enticing form.

Wheat supplies 12 minerals which growing children must have. Also the bran they need. Milk is rich in vitamins. These are elements you want your children to get daily and in plenty. Then make them tempting in this fascinating dish.

Airy, flaky, nut-like puffs

Quaker Puffed Rice is a food confection. No breakfast dainty ever served compares with its delights.

Serve with cream and sugar. Mix in every dish of fruit. Crisp and dense with melted butter for hungry children afternoons.

Nothing is so good for people as these whole grains puffed.

The Beauty of Lamp Light

WHEN you stroll along the street at night, don't you love to see the lamps gleaming in the windows? How colorful the homes appear. How hospitable and inviting!

The lamps in your home give pleasure to others just as they make the rooms cheerful and home-like for you. Take off all the lamp shades some time, as an experiment, and see how glare-y the effect.

If your furniture is out of date but well-beloved, cover it over with cretonne slips. Put the simplest of drapes at the window—and get some new lamps. The soft light mellows the whole effect and shortcomings in furniture are overlooked.

This little service in home decoration costs you nothing. You'd have to have the light anyway.

DEMPSEY IS USING OLD TRICK AGAIN

Jack Employs Famous Shift He Discarded In Effort To Whip Luis.

White Sulphur Springs, N. Y., Sept. 10.—The famous shift which made Jack Dempsey a world's champion, and which he discarded a brace of years ago so that he might become a nice, refined boxer, is visibly present again. For the first time since he trained for Georges Carpentier, the champion has been employing that baffling ring trick. His success with it during the past two days proves that he has not lost the knack.

Against Farmer Lodge he faked a left, then faked a right, faked another left and then landed with his right, going through the whole ceremony so quickly that the eye hardly could follow his moves.

The fact that Dempsey is resorting again to the shift seems to be a tip-off that when he tackles Luis Firpo he will toss all his boxing skill to the four winds and do what he decided to in the days before he used to do. Without achieve scientific greatness, without a doubt he will step right into Firpo and make it a slugfest match with the top of the first prize.

ELEVEN GAMES ON PALESTINE LIST

Sept. 22—Ex-Highs, here.
Sept. 29—Beaver, Pa., here.
Oct. 6—Columbiana, here.
Oct. 13—Salem, here.
Oct. 20—Sharon, Pa., there.
Oct. 27—Sebring, there.
Nov. 3—Struthers, here.
Nov. 10—Lisbon, there.
Nov. 17—Wellsville, there.
Nov. 24—Hubbard, there.
Nov. 29—Thanksgiving, Westinghouse Tech, here.

There are two teams on this schedule that have never appeared there before, namely, Sharon and Westinghouse Tech of Pittsburgh.

Both of these are strong teams, specially Westinghouse and together with the others on the schedule will give Coach Knessal and his warriors plenty to think about in the next three months.

Open New Course

Youngstown, Sept. 10.—Youngstown's new municipal golf links will be thrown open to the public Sept. 15. A charge of 50 cents for each nine holes played will be the golfer's expense.

Emmett French and Norman Hall, local pros, and Louise Fordyce and Clara Krauter, local women champions, will dedicate the new course.

Play Yale Freshmen

Cleveland, Sept. 10.—University school will play the Yale freshmen team at New Haven on Oct. 13, it was announced here today. Last year the prep lads held the collegians to a 16 to 6 score and indications are that the score will be closer this because of the fact that many veterans are back in school.

PROFESSIONAL ELEVEN ASSURED FOR SALEM, SCHAFER BACKS SQUAD

Salem is assured a high class professional football this season as the result of efforts of several prominent local players and the securing of a backer who will put the team on its feet financially. The Salem Quakers have changed their name to the Schafer Independents and will be backed by Jesse Schafer.

This important bit of information has already created quite a lot of interest among Salem gridiron followers, and as there is no other team in the field, this aggregation will have all Salem back of it.

Manager Roland Webber has announced the lineup to which the names of several local and out of town players will be added later. Sartick, captain; Scullion, Hodge, Beagle, O'Brien, Case, Steele and Carlisle are in the backfield. Sartick will get the first call at the full back job and Case at quarter while the other candidates will be at the half positions.

On ends will be Alton, Johnson, Koenreich and Litty; tackles, Webber.

Heavier Team At Lisbon This Year, Many New Players

Lisbon, Sept. 10.—The Lisbon High school football squad has been at steady practice for the past week. The squad has several new faces this year and from present appearance, while the team lost some good players through graduation, the average weight of the players on the line and back field will be heavier than last year.

The early practice has been brought about through the efforts of the recently organized alumni association which hopes to see the locals win a majority of their games this year.

An effort has been made to schedule lighter teams first and heavier and faster teams later.

While it is too soon to make any predictions it is significant to note that the old timers in the alumni association seem to be well satisfied with the squad even if there are several green line and backfield men.

KEARNS HAS PITY FOR FIRPO IF HE ANGERS DEMPSEY

Says Luis Will Suffer If He Arouses Jack On September 14.

White Sulphur Springs, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, today said that the only person who could win the fight for Luis Angel Firpo next week was Babe Ruth.

"How?" he was asked.

"Ruth has a big baseball bat," Kearns replied. "If he loans it to Luis and lets the latter use it, why maybe Luis can knock out Jack, but it cannot be done any other way."

Kearns said he wondered where all the talk came about what would happen to Dempsey if Firpo landed one or two blows.

"Who did Firpo ever knock over with one or two snacks?" Kearns asked.

"I hope for Firpo's sake that he does not hurt Jack and make him mad," Kearns said.

"If he does the fight game will see six tigers, two lions and a couple of panthers, all rolled up in one, loose and swishing around a prize ring. If Jack's temper is aroused on the night of Sept. 14, I would hate to be Firpo."

Firpo Isn't Worried

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 10.—Luis Angel Firpo was not worried today over reports that the coasts might stop his battle with Jack Dempsey on Sept. 14.

"I will keep right on training," he said. "Tex Rickard will take care of the lawsuit."

Firpo is doing much of his work in secret. The real training is in the improvised gymnasium back of his cottage where every morning he is working hard. The afternoon exhibitions at the dog track are regarded more as a commercial than athletic exhibition.

Spoonbills wade in the water and sweep their bills sideways through the mud in search of fishes, frogs, insects, worms and other food.

Steins Will Play With Steubenville

Steubenville, Sept. 10.—Steubenville's independent football eleven to be known as the Steubenville Ex-Collegians will open the season on Sunday, Sept. 23.

Russ Stein, former Wash-Jeff All-American tackle, who will coach and manage the local club, has sent word that he will be in Steubenville next Saturday evening, at which time plans will be practically completed for the opening of the season.

Herb Stein, former Pitt All-American star, has been named captain of the big eleven.

JAPAN AT MERCY OF WORLD IF HER FLEET WAS LOST

Japan To Help Its Stricken
People Before Thinking Of Fleet.

Washington, Sept. 10.—Japan will be at the mercy of the world for the next decade if her great first fleet met disaster in the national catastrophe as has been indicated in meager press dispatches from the stricken empire.

This was the opinion expressed by Captain Osami Nagano, navy hatching at the Japanese embassy and an authority upon Far Eastern naval affairs.

If the great war fleet—Japan's principal protection against foreign aggression—has been destroyed, it will not be replaced for fully ten years, Captain Nagano declared.

Although Japan is authorized under the Washington conference to keep her fleet at 3.5 ratio with America's, Nagano stated his government would bend all energies to relieving its stricken people and in rebuilding devastated areas before turning its attention to restoring its national defenses.

The great Japanese first fleet, comprising four battleships, three battle cruisers, seven light cruisers, 32 destroyers and two divisions of submarines, was last reported enroute to the great naval base was wiped out by the harbor of Yokosuka to anchor. This the disaster and meager press dispatches reported "many warships wrecked" in the harbor.

The Yokosuka naval base, reportedly destroyed, held great naval warehouses, storing food, clothing and other supplies. The navy's greatest ammunition magazine was located at the same port, but is believed to have escaped damage.

The great Koshigawa army arsenal, where half of the empire's military ammunition is manufactured, was also wiped out by the earthquake.

At Tokio the Megura army magazine, holding great stores of ammunition and shells was destroyed by fire.

It is not certain, of course, whether our first fleet was destroyed. I do not like to discuss this question at all when American people are thinking only of relieving starvation and distress among my own people. But if the navy really is lost, no effort will be made to replace it until after all the work of reconstruction is completed.

MASONS TO BUILD COSTLY MEMORIAL

Cornerstone Of Beautiful
Washington Memorial
To Be Laid Nov. 1.

Greatest of all memorials ever erected to any man will be the George Washington National Masonic Memorial, now being built in Alexandria, Va., just outside the national capital.

The cornerstone of this beautiful and extensive structure, to cost $4,000,000, will be laid on Thursday, Nov. 1, and Masons of the United States are planning upon making this great occasion the most impressive in the history of the order.

It is expected that every one of the blue lodges in this country will have one or more representatives at the Nov. 1 festivities. In addition, there will be pilgrimages from every state.

Railroads already are preparing to handle the enormous number of travelers to Washington, which is expected to reach into the hundred thousands. There are approximately 3,000,000 Masons in the United States, and every one of them will want to be present at this momentous ceremony.

The George Washington National Masonic Memorial project was determined upon at a meeting of prominent Masons from several grand jurisdictions in Alexandria on Feb. 22, 1910. This meeting was held in the historic lodge room of Alexandria Washington lodge No. 22, of which the first president was the first worshipful master and over whose deliberations he presided when he was the chief executive of the nation.

The plans at first were fairly modest, but as they were discussed year after year the plans were enlarged until at present they have assumed gigantic proportions.

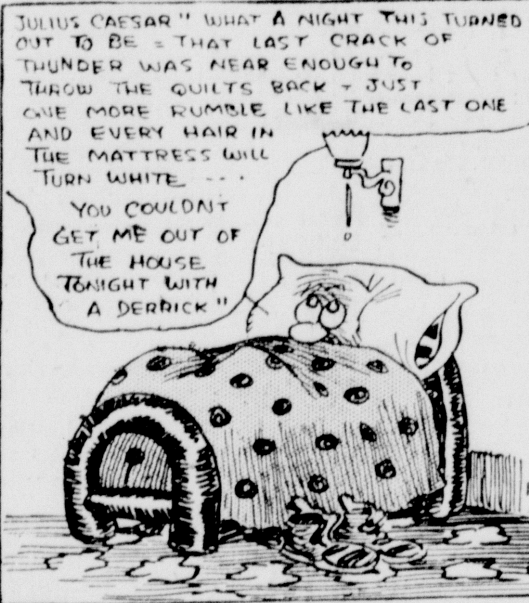

The memorial is being erected on Shooters Hill at Alexandria, on the Arlington ridge, which commands a view of the city of Washington. The Memorial association has acquired in all 32 acres of land surrounding Shooters Hill, which will be passed by all those who travel from the national capital to Mount Vernon, Washington's home.

The edifice will be surrounded by artistic landscaping and will be reached by broad walks and stone steps ascending through seven terraces. From the topmost colonnaded tower of the memorial, visitors will view for miles around the region in which Washington passed a great portion of his life.
